TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF
SOUTH DAKOTA,

Dear Brethren:—As the result of conference between Men's Societies of seven religious bodies a general movement has been set on foot among Christian people by which the week beginning Sunday, November 29th, has been set apart as a week of special prayer for the spread of Christ's Kingdom among men. Neither intelligent clergymen nor intelligent laymen can afford, in these days of general movements, to ignore a call which, like this, seems to come not from the hearts of the East nor from the West, not from the North nor from the South, but rather may we not say it?—from the God of the spirits of all flesh, from Him who maketh men to be of one mind in an house.

We feel that all that the Clergy and Laity of South Dakota need from us is simply these words of reminder.

Your Faithful Brethren,
WILLIAM H. HARE,
Bishop
FREDERICK FOOTE JOHNSON,
Assistant Bishop
